

Dingwall Scottish Country Dance Club

Highland Archaeology Festival Tea Dance on Sunday 8 October 2017 in the Findon Hall, Culbokie

2 – 5 pm to recorded music; £3 including tea and biscuits.

Dance around some archaeological & historic sites of the Highlands and Islands without going further than Culbokie!
This event is part of the Highland Archaeology Festival 2017.
<http://www.highlandarchaeologyfestival.org/>

Profits will be split equally between ARCH and the Puffin Hydrotherapy Pool.

All dances will be recapped and less familiar dances can be walked if requested

Auchinellan Jig	J8x32	Alice McLean Auchinellan Collection
The Caveman of Culsh	R8x32	John Drewry Deeside Book 1
Lochindorb Strathspey	S3x32	Anne Hutchinson Aberdeen Collection
The Mercat Cross	J8x32	Jean Attwood Alexander Dances 4
The Recumbent Stone	R5x48	John Drewry Greenburn Book 3
Bridge over the Atlantic	S3x32	Derek Haynes and John Gradon Carnforth 3
Castle Varrich	J8x32	Jean Attwood Alexander Dances 4

Tea

Ladies of Dingwall	R8x48	RSCDS MMM 2.16
The Moray Rant	S3x48	John Drewry Silver City Book
On Suilven in Summer	J8x32	Bill Forbes Craigievar Book 4
Flowers of Dunbeg	R5x32	Sue Porter and Primary 7
The Ring of Brodgar	S4x32	Derek Haynes Carnforth Collection 5
Achnacarry House	J8x32	Bill Forbes Craigievar Book 1
The Peat Fire Flame	R8x40	John Drewry Bon Accord Book

Cribs are available at: <http://dingwallcountrydancing.btck.co.uk/>

Future events:

Saturday 21 October 2017 October Rally in the Findon Hall, Culbokie from 7.30 to 11.30pm dancing to Frank Thomson who is joined by Sarah Beattie on fiddle and Brian Watt on drums.

2018 Both rallies will be in the Findon Hall, Culbokie

Friday 8 June from 8pm to midnight dancing to Marian Anderson and Max

Saturday 20th October 7.30 to 11.30pm dancing to Frank Thomson and Brian Watt