

Mary Ross BEM

Mary was introduced to Scottish Country Dancing in her native Banffshire at the age of 16. She moved to Inverness and became a member of the Inverness Branch in 1962 and brought her enthusiasm for dancing into the Branch. She introduced Scottish Country Dancing to the town of Nairn where she started 3 Children's Classes and 1 Adult Class. Always interested in furthering dancing she started a Children's Class in the Hilton area of Inverness. Some time later she also took on a Class at North Kessock. For many years Mary organised Scottish Country Danbces in aid of various Charities and is noted for the active part she plays in Scottish Country Dancing throughout the Highlands.
